"UP THE LADDER"
A Universal Jewel Starring
Virginia Valli

Jane Cornwall, a wealthy young heiress, returns from Europe and dashes over to see her sweetheart ~~from~~ since childhood, James Van Clinton, a poor, struggling inventor attempting to perfect his invention which he calls the Tele-Vision-Scope.

Jane insists on helping him with $25,000 which he needs. To accomplish this she must sell her home; her other funds disappear as the result of poor investments. She goes thru with it. On the day that the invention is perfected, he proposes to her, thru the medium of the mechanism. She accepts him.

Five years later the couple is very rich. Entertaining, they have the Newhalls. Van falls victim to Mrs. Newhall's wiles. On his wedding anniversary he buys a jeweled present for Mrs. Newhall. His baby girl takes it from his pocket. Her mother makes her put it back. Van leaves, off with a previous business engagement excuse.

His wife calls Mrs. Newhall. She sees her husband, reflected in the ~~machine~~ mirror, into the face of the machine. Mr. Newhall returns unexpectedly. Things then go hard for the Van Clintons because he is neglecting his business. He discovers his wife is his partner. She refuses to sell. ~~xxxxxxx~~ They lose their property, and separate.

A year later, after proving his ability as an engineer for a big electrical company, he is offered an immense salary. Peering up to see the witness of his signature to his new contract, he beholds his wife who again promises to help him 'up the ladder'.
